

SCOTTSDALE

Johnna Dias- Watson Goes From Stage to TV Screen

FOOD + BEVERAGE

FINDING SWEET SUCCESS

LIFE + CULTURE

PERFECT DATE IDEAS

TRAVEL

A ROMANTIC GETAWAY

FEBRUARY 2023
CITYLIFESTYLE.COM

business monthly

A round-up of exciting news from local businesses.

Several Local Restaurants Make OpenTable's Top 100 Restaurants for 2022 List

Four Valley restaurants were recently named to OpenTable's list of Top 100 Restaurants in Arizona. Scottsdale's Ocean 44 and Dominick's Steakhouse nabbed two of the spots, while Phoenix's Steak 44 and The Henry were the other two. Sedona restaurant Mariposa - Latin Inspired Grill was the only other restaurant in Arizona that made the list. According to OpenTable, the list is generated from diner reviews. Qualifying restaurants were then scored and sorted according to the overall score. OpenTable.com

Scan to read more.

Buck & Rider Opens Second Location

Buck & Rider, known for its top-notch ingredients and commitment to flying in the freshest seafood seven days a week from around the world, recently debuted its highly anticipated second location on the southeast corner of Scottsdale and Mayo at The Shops at Chauncey Ranch. The 10,000-square-foot restaurant was inspired by the old seafood canaries on the West and East coasts, and also includes an open chef's kitchen and a 10-seat sushi bar. BuckAndRider.com

Tommy Bahama Launches Brunch Service

Tommy Bahama recently launched a brunch service that features a seasonal amuse, Lump Blue Crab & Shrimp Fried Rice, Pecanwood Bacon, Schreiner's Chicken Sausage, and then a choice of an entree. Selections include the Truffle Frittata, Wagyu Breakfast Burger, Huevos Rancheros, and Steak & Eggs. A Bananas Foster French Toast is served as dessert. TommyBahama.com

Scan to read more.

Want to be featured?

Get in touch by heading over to our landing page to connect:
CityLifestyle.com/Scottsdale